

COLOURING THE WORLD AT YOUR FEET

Share your artwork using #BSM

Created by French shoe designer Benoît Méléard for his Summer 2000 collection, these polka dot boots feature a dramatic cantilevered heel. Often, many shoe designers focus on modifying materials, embellishments and colours, whereas Méléard is notable for playing with the architecture and form of footwear itself.

FRENCH • 1999-2000

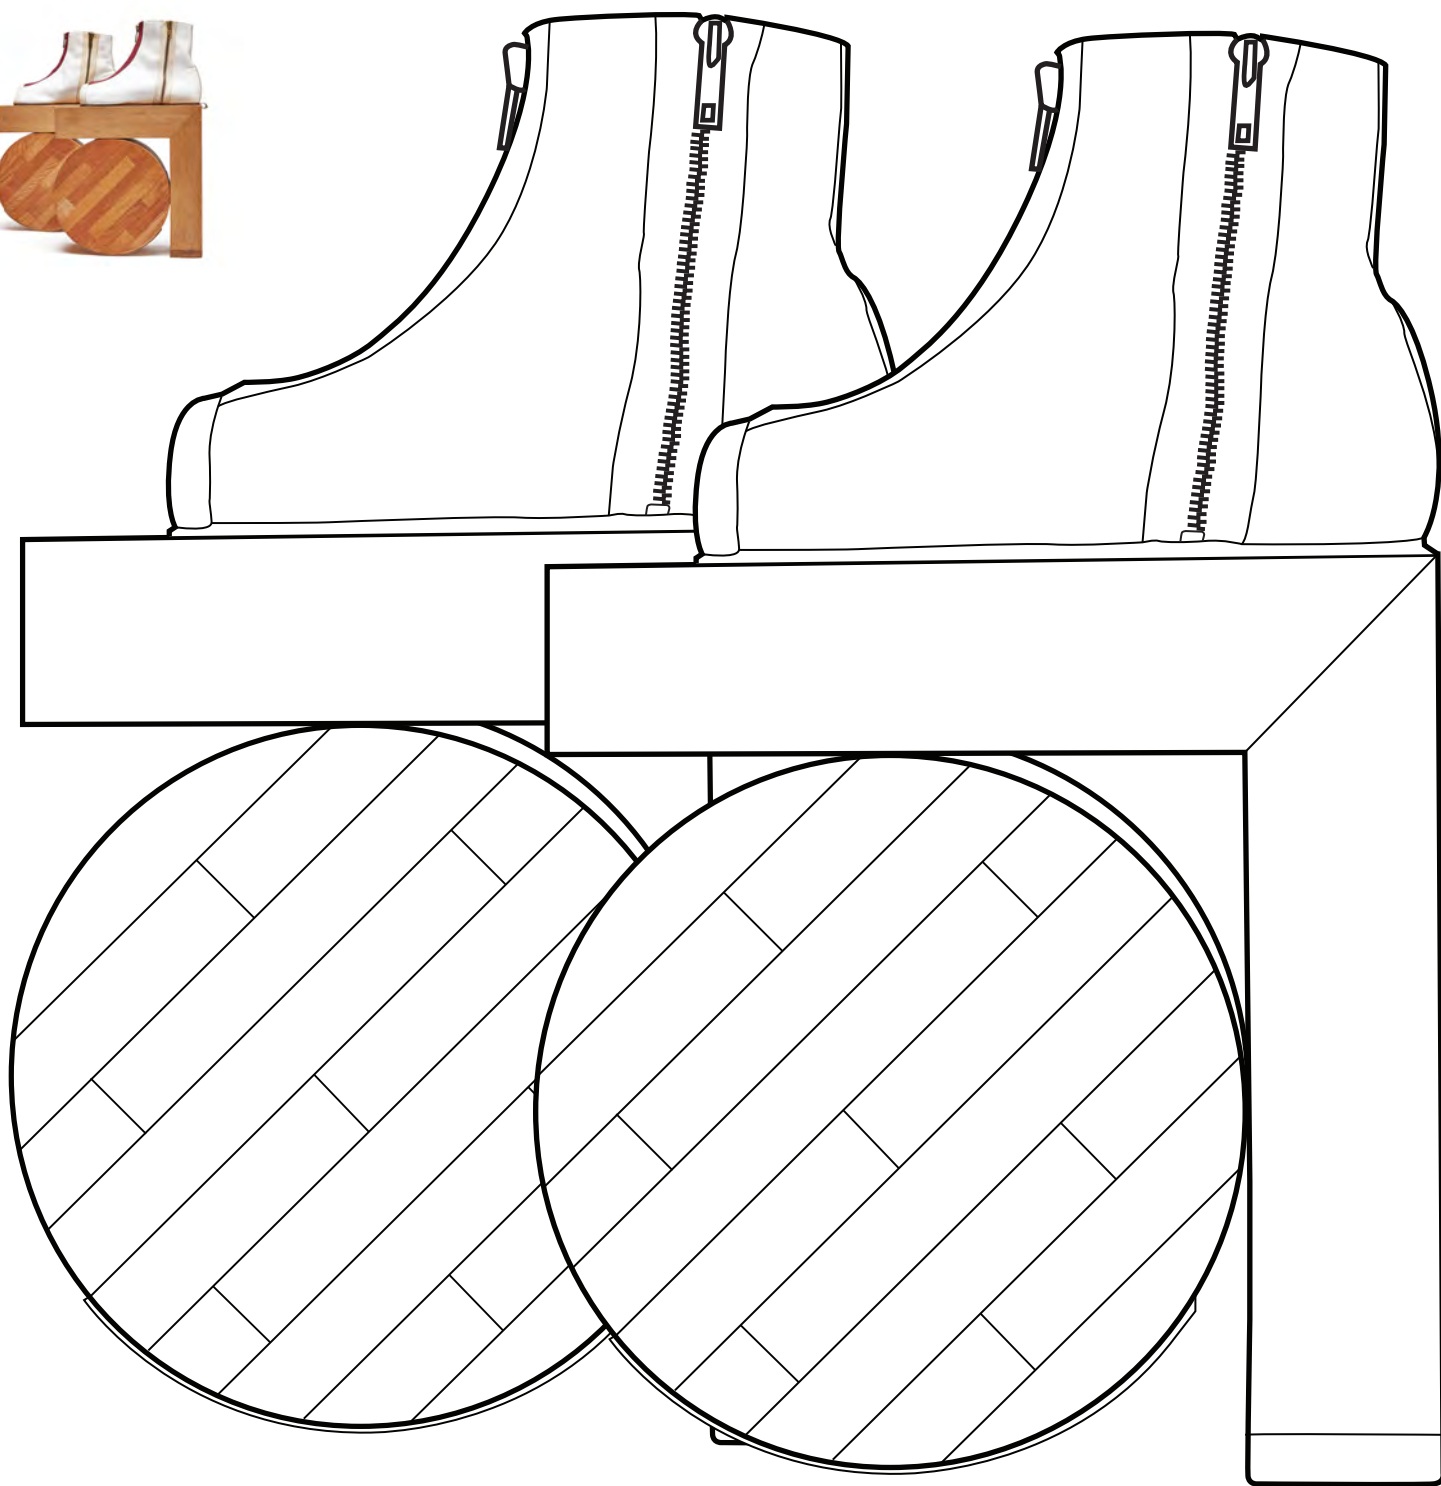

Image: Kailee Mandel

@batashoemuseum | batashoemuseum.ca | 416-979-7799

COLOURING THE WORLD AT YOUR FEET

Share your artwork using #BSM

These striking ankle boots designed by Benoît Méléard are roughly 45 cm or 18 inches tall. The circle and L-shaped platform soles are made of oak, and were manufactured by a Parisian flooring company.

FRENCH • 2011

Image: Kailee Mandel

@batashoemuseum | batashoemuseum.ca | 416-979-7799