

COLOURING THE WORLD AT YOUR FEET

Share your artwork using #BSM

These children's ice skates feature steel blades attached to leather lace-up boots. They were donated to the museum by Pasia Schonberg who wore them in the late 1940s when she was only three years old.

Visit our new online exhibition, Boots & Blades, for an inside scoop on the story of Canadian figure skating - www.batashoemuseum.ca.

SWISS • 1948

@batashoemuseum | batashoemuseum.ca | 416-979-7799

COLOURING THE WORLD AT YOUR FEET

Share your artwork using #BSM

These men's figure skates were made by Bata in the mid 1930s. They feature steel blades, as well as a leather boot that has a warm felt lining.

Want to learn about the story of Canadian figure skating? Explore our new online exhibition, Boots & Blades at www.bootsandblades.ca.

CZECH • C. 1935

@batashoemuseum | batashoemuseum.ca | 416-979-7799