

Colouring THE WORLD AT YOUR FEET

Share your artwork using #BSM

This track shoe belonged to Canadian Olympic gold medallist, Donovan Bailey. He wore them for warm up before competing against his rival, gold medallist Michael Johnson, in Toronto in 1997. The race was to determine who was the fastest man on earth - Bailey won the race!

GERMAN • 1997

@batashoemuseum | batashoemuseum.ca | 416-979-7799

Colouring THE WORLD AT YOUR FEET

Share your artwork using #BSM

This winter-ready sneaker is the latest in a longstanding collaboration between the Canadian footwear company Sully Wong, co-founded by George Sully and Henry Wong, and students at Toronto Central Academy, aka the "6IX Academy", that fosters skills needed to step into the worlds of design and fashion.

CANADIAN • 2019

@batashoemuseum | batashoemuseum.ca | 416-979-7799

