

Colouring

THE WORLD AT YOUR FEET

Share your artwork using #BSM

In the 1920s shoes with woven uppers were considered fashionable summer wear from Palm Beach to the Riviera. The style was inspired by the traditional footwear of the Balkan region of Europe.

SWISS • MADE BY BALLY • 1926-30

@batashoemuseum | batashoemuseum.ca | 416-979-7799

Colouring

THE WORLD AT YOUR FEET

Share your artwork using #BSM

With their sporty stripes and rich 'Adidas blue' colour, these glittering high-heeled boots cleverly reflect both the disco and the fitness crazes that were so popular during the late 1970s.

ENGLISH • DESIGNED BY TERRY DE HAVILLAND • 1979-1981

@batashoemuseum | batashoemuseum.ca | 416-979-7799

Colouring

THE WORLD AT YOUR FEET

Share your artwork using #BSM

Early photographs show cowboys wearing a wide range of boot styles, however, by the 1920s cowboy boots began to feature the now iconic pointed toe, decorative use of stitching and the use of bold color in their design. This pair was made by the Canadian boot maker, Boulet.

CANADIAN • MADE BY BOULET WESTERN BOOTS • 2017

@batashoemuseum | batashoemuseum.ca | 416-979-7799

Colouring

THE WORLD AT YOUR FEET

Share your artwork using #BSM

In 1984, young Chicago Bulls rookie Michael Jordan signed with Nike to create a line of signature sneakers. Jordan's first shoe, which is now known as the Air Jordan 1, has become an icon of sneaker culture.

AMERICAN • KOREAN-MADE • 1985

@batashoemuseum | batashoemuseum.ca | 416-979-7799